

1921

The League of Nations. Design by Wall Cousins. Specimen card inscribed:
The Spirit of World Comradeship for which stands the League of Nations, is on these cards, symbolised by a beautiful woman opening wide to the various nations the golden gate of happiness and prosperity. The picture also suggests that all governments will eventually welcome this opportunity for furthering the betterment of mankind.

(A). Green border

(B). Red border

In 1921 De La Rue & Co. took over Goodall & Son but the imprint was continued until later date on the presentation packs.

1922

Ireland. Commemorating the establishment of the Irish Free State by treaty with England in December 1921. In the centre of the Celtic design is the National Emblem of Ireland with the words Ireland for ever. The border shows historical landscapes together with the Arms of the four Provinces, the centre being filled by the Imperial Crown – emblem of supreme sovereignty. Design by Edward Cunningham of Goodall & Son. 1250 packs issued.

(A). White border

(B). Red border

Double packs were sent to His Grace the Duke of Abercorn, who was Governor of Northern Ireland, and to Mr. T.M. Healey, Governor of the Irish Free State.

1923

St. Bartholomew's Hospital Foundation Celebration. "Bart's" Octocentenary, 1123-1923. Founder Rahere. Design by Edward Cunningham of the firm of Goodall & Son and De La Rue & Co. 1250 packs were issued, but at the request of Bart's Hospital for 50 packs, a further 150 had to be printed and issued at a later date.

(A). White border

(B). Purple border

1924

British Empire Exhibition. Opened at Wembley in April. Designed and made by De La Rue & Co. 1500 packs issued.

(A). White border

(B). Red border

1925

Railway Centenary 1825-1925. Celebrations were held at Darlington in July. Design by Goodall & Son showing Stephenson's 'Locomotion I' built for the Stockton and Darlington Railway and a modern L.N.E.R. Locomotive.
1500 packs issued.

(A). White border

(B). Light green border

Packs were sent to:

- (1). The Secretary of the Locomotive, Railway and Carriage Review to add to their souvenirs.
- (2). The Secretary of the Railway Information Bureau for forwarding to the Library of the Bureau of Railway Economics at Washington, U.S.A.
- (3). Patent Office, Lincoln's Inn for their Museum.

1926

Aviation. Aircraft encircling the World, with St. Paul's Cathedral in the foreground, to commemorate the record flight to Australia and back by Sir Alan Cobham. Design by Goodall & Son. 2000 packs issued.

(A). Red border

(B). Olive green border.

A double pack of cards was sent to Sir Alan Cobham.

1927

Trade within the Empire. With the inscription Britons, hold your own! Tennyson. Design showing varieties of fruit produced throughout the Empire. Design by Goodall & Son.

(A). Pink border

(B). Light green border

1928

Special Pack in commemoration of the Tercentenary of the Granting of the Company's Charter by King Charles I. Design incorporating coins of Charles I and George V, the words 1628 John Hopkyns, Master, and 1928 Sir William Noble, Master, together with the name of the Company. Ace of Spades bears four suitmarks superposed and Goodall & Son.

(A). Design in black on a mauve background

(B). Design in black on a pink background

Each pack in single white box suitably inscribed in gold and presented at the banquet held in celebration on the actual Tercentenary date, 22 October.

1928

Tercentenary of the Granting of the Charter, 1628-1928. Portrait of King Charles I (after the painting by Vandyke). Design by Goodall & Son.

4000 packs issued.

(A). White border

(B). Chocolate-brown border

1929

Our King Restored to us. Portrait of King George V. In general relief and thankfulness for his recovery from illness. 4000 packs issued.

(A). Red border

(B). Dark blue border

A special case containing one dozen packs of cards of this design was made by Messrs. Asprey for presentation to King George V.

1930

Imperial Conference of Dominion Prime Ministers. Held in London in November.

(A). Red border

(B). Dark blue border

A double pack of cards was sent to all Delegates of the Imperial Conference together with a print of the speech of the Master at the Installation Banquet.